

4 members from United Way Greater Simcoe County responded to the following questions:

What is Civil Society?

A word cloud of responses to the question 'What is Civil Society?'. The words are arranged in a roughly rectangular shape. On the left side, the phrase 'taking care of each other' is written vertically. On the right side, the word 'compassion' is written vertically. The central area contains various other terms: 'collaborative', 'inclusive opportunities', 'non-governmental agencies', 'community organizations', 'disabilities are asset equal', 'open-minded', 'social justice', 'embracing', and 'respectful'. The words are in various colors including red, orange, and black, and are of different sizes.

taking care of each other collaborative inclusive opportunities

non-governmental agencies community organizations disabilities are asset equal open-minded social justice embracing respectful

compassion

From your organizational/association perspective, please identify what you think are the 3 most important broad trends that are currently affecting society...

From your organizational/association perspective, please identify up to 3 critical events that you think might happen in the next 5-10 years that will impact these trends...

20 years from now, as you sit back and reflect...what will the School for Civil Society need to have accomplished in order to have been successful (from your organizational/association perspective)...

A word cloud of key concepts for the School for Civil Society. The words are arranged in a roughly cross-like shape. The largest word is 'community change' at the top. Other prominent words include 'community engagement', 'building from bottom up', 'new democratic community of learning', 'addressing varied learning styles', 'tangible results for students and community', 'no age limit', 'changing everything', 'inclusivity', and 'language barriers'.

community change

changing everything

community engagement

addressing varied learning styles building from bottom up tangible results for students and community no age limit

new democratic community of learning inclusivity

language barriers