250 municipal councillors in Northern Ontario were invited to respond to the following question:

Please identify '3 broad social trends that we should keep in mind when designing the school for civil society'

Please identify up to 3 critical events that you think might happen in the next 5-10 years that will impact these trends